tions of the compositions of several well-known writers, and was fully appreciated by a well-filled auditorium of interested listeners.

In addition to the strictly artistic interests of the Art School, the club has instituted a class in pictorial and commercial illustration on Thursday and Saturday mornings, from 9 to 12 o'clock, and on Wednesday afternoons from 2 to 5 o'clock. Students are required to have some knowledge of drawing before entering this class, although beginners may enter if they are also working in the regular classes of the school. Illustration is essentially an art for the setting forth of ideas—the author whose book is being illustrated or the original ideas of the artist himself. Therefore in the study of illustration in this class emphasis is laid upon the idea to be embodied, as well as upon the technique and the mechanical considerations necessary to work which is to be reproduced.

In the commercial branch attention will be paid to posters and advertisements. Additional classes in any of the fine arts will be held weekly from 8 to 10 P. M. if a sufficient number of students be enrolled. The current year has been a prosperous one for the Art Club, and the prospects for the coming year, beginning in October, are decidedly flattering.

Next Tuesday the club will listen to a valuable talk by Frank W. Duke on a subject upon which he possesses a special ability. His subject will be "Vocational Education," and the application which Mr. Duke will make of the subject will be its influence upon the men who are obliged to earn their bread by the sweat of their brows. Mr. Duke has given the subject much attention and is regarded as an authority on the question. The lecturer is well known as the head of the Mechanics' Institute of Richmond.

Story Tellers' League.
The regular monthly meeting of the Story Tellers' League of Richmond will take place on Wednesday, April 17, at 8 P. M. in the auditorium of the Virginia Mechanics' Institute. A prompt attendance is urged, as a most interesting program is promised. Hereafter there will be no admission to these meetings except by membership cards, which are to be had at the door and upon application to Miss Lucy S. Coleman, the president, or to any of the membership committee.

The free use of the excellent library of story books makes membership in the Story Tellers' League a very helpful adjunct to all kinds of educational work. Books may be taken out each Wednesday from 1 to 1:30 and from 5:30 to 6.

Organ Recital.
There will be a very interesting organ and song recital given in St. Paul's Church on Thursday evening at 8:15 o'clock. The affair is under the direction of all of the Junior Auxiliaries in Richmond, and some of the best known musicians in the city will take part in the program arranged for that evening. Mr. Reinhardt and Mrs. Conby will play and Mrs. Monell will sing a number of songs. Perhaps the most pleasing feature of the entire program will be the violin solos rendered by Little Miss Marie Adkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adkins. She is only thirteen years old, and is already quite prominent in musical circles in Richmond. Last spring her recital before the members of the Woman's Club was one of the most delightful musicals of that season.

Meeting Monday.
The Helping Circle of King's Daughters will meet in the home of Mrs. John Chalkley, 2202 East Broad Street, on Monday afternoon at half past 4 o'clock. An important matter is to be decided upon at this meeting and all members are urged to be present.

Ricketts—Vass.
Stephen's Episcopal Church, at Culpeper, was the scene of a brilliant wedding Wednesday evening, when Miss Mary Harper Vass, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roslin Cummings Vass, became the bride of Dr. Laurence Sanford Ricketts, of Orange. The Rev. J. W. Ware, rector of the church, performed the ceremony before an altar that was banked with palms and ferns and Easter lilies. Mrs. W. Jennings became the organ player both the processional and recessional marches.

and "O Promise Me" during the ceremony.

The bride entered the church with her father, who gave her away. Her wedding gown was of white crepe de chine over messaline and trimmed with Venice point lace. Her veil was fastened with a coronet of orange blossoms and she carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. Miss Florence Fitzhugh Vass, who was maid of honor, wore a gown of pink messaline draped in pink chiffon, and carried a bouquet of Killarney roses. The bridesmaids were Misses Sara D. Starke, of Richmond; Nancy Shackelford, of Orange; Susie Gary, of Abingdon and Jacqueline Ware, of Culpeper. They were dressed alike in gowns of pink messaline draped in lavender chiffon, and carried bouquets of pink and lavender sweet peas.

Little Miss Emma Cullen Browning, a niece of the groom, and Miss Rosalie Hixey, a cousin of the bride, were flower girls, and made a charming picture in their quaint white mull frocks with pink sashes, as they strewn flowers from the large baskets of pink sweet peas that they carried before the bride. The groomsmen were Carroll Slaughter and M. F. Field, of Orange; Filson Lathan, of Culpeper; and E. B. Snyder, of Richmond. The best man was William Graham, of Orange, a cousin of the groom.

After a honeymoon spent at the various North Carolina resorts and Florida, Dr. and Mrs. Ricketts will make their home in Orange. Among the guests from a distance were Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Clark, Mrs. H. F. Harper and J. W. Harper, all of Washington; Judge and Mrs. George Shackerford, Mr. and Mrs. Judd Browning, of Orange; Mrs. Hugh Hamilton, of Warrenton, an aunt of the bride; Rev. and Mrs. Carter, of Saint Thomas, in Lexington.

Miss Mary McKee and Miss Jeanette Allen, of Norfolk, left town Thursday for Lexington, where they will be guests of Miss McKee's brother, Captain McKee, for several days. Miss McKee and Miss Allen attended the Easter hops at the Virginia Military Institute that took place on Friday and Saturday nights. They will return to Richmond on Tuesday of this week.

Engagement Announced.
Mr. and Mrs. Simon Crowell, of 2505 Kensington Avenue, announced the engagement of their daughter, Sara, to S. J. Sachs, of Gettysburg, Pa. No date has yet been announced for the marriage.

Thompson—Roberts.
A very pretty wedding was celebrated at the home of B. J. Phaup, 1520 West Main Street, on Tuesday, April 9, when his niece, Miss Mary Ann Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roberts, was married to Charles Benjamin Thompson. The Rev. W. G. Parker performed the ceremony and Mrs. C. O. Swann played the "Wedding March" from Lohengrin and "O Believe Me" during the ceremony.

The bride wore a traveling gown of tan cloth with a hat to match and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. Miss Mary Selbe was her cousin's maid of honor. Her gown was of pale pink chiffon over musaline and trimmed with crystal and she carried pink carnations. Elbert C. Walthall, Jr., was the groom's best man.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson left for a Northern wedding trip that will include Buffalo, N. Y., Niagara Falls and Canada. They will be at home after April 15, at 107 West Cary Street, in this city.

In New York.
Miss Frankie McKinnery, of Farmville, left Wednesday for New York City, where she will spend some time visiting friends. Miss McKinnery has recently been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanford Hutcheson in this city.

German Tuesday.
One of the interesting affairs of the past week was the German given by Mrs. Powell Tuesday evening in the ballroom of the Jefferson Hotel for the members of her dancing classes. Herbert Powell led the German, dancing with Miss Helen Klein.

Among those dancing were Mr. Powell, with Miss Klein; Robert Klein, with Miss Ruby Powell; Mrs. Leo, Miss Grace

PATRICIAN Shoe

Artists versus Shoe Makers

"PATRICIAN" DESIGNERS ARE ARTISTS, NOT MERE SHOE MAKERS. EVERY "PATRICIAN" STYLE IS CREATED TO PRODUCE A CERTAIN EFFECT AND RECEIVES AS MUCH STUDY AS THE MOST ELABORATE DRESS. THE MATERIALS USED ARE SELECTED WITH THE UTMOST CARE, HENCE "PATRICIAN" DURABILITY AND RELIABILITY.

"Patrician" workmen operate under the strictest supervision, for the assembling and making are just as important as the selection of materials and the designing of styles. They make nothing but women's footwear. Their experienced fingers devote as much care to the linings and trimmings as to the exterior, hence the dainty finish that wins the approval of the most discriminating.
